

ABOUT ME

Nathan McLaron delivers performances that feel natural, intelligent, and emotionally alive. With a smooth tenor-baritone voice and a comforting texture, he seamlessly shifts from heroic sincerity to calculated menace. Specializing in commercial and character work, Nathan excels as the intellectual villain, the sarcastic best friend, the grounded father figure, or the unexpectedly hilarious sidekick. His strength in cold reads, improvisation, and diligent and instinctive script analysis allows him to elevate material with confidence and clarity.
